

Just Glimpses, Really

DR. GRAHAM LEO

A poetry anthology exploring faith, beauty, nature, and the fleeting moments that reveal something deeper.

Graham's poems move between the Australian landscape, European travel, family life, and theological reflection.

THEMES

- Faith and beauty in the everyday
- The Australian landscape as spiritual geography
- Family, memory, and the passage of time
- European travel and cathedral encounters
- Theological reflection through poetic form
- The ordinary as a window to the eternal
