A provocative and practical guide to values formation in Christian schools.

Drawing on his experience as a K-12 Principal, Graham challenges schools to think deeply about the values they teach and how those values are lived out in community. Currently out of print — will be available again soon.

THEMES

- Values formation in Christian schools
- Honesty about difficult topics in education
- Culture over curriculum in shaping character
- Human sexuality, creation care, and theology
- The role of adults in modelling values
- Practical frameworks for school leaders
